

As a Precautionary Measure, the Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen is closing from November 3 to 30, 2020

As a result of the new protective measures to contain the corona pandemic, the Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen in Düsseldorf is closing its two venues K20 and K21 from November 3 up to and including November 30, 2020. This decision was taken in agreement with the responsible health authorities and ministries of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia. The health of both its visitors and employees is a top priority for the Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen. With this precautionary measure, the state museum of North Rhine-Westphalia hopes to contribute to the fight against the spread of the corona virus.

#K20K21fromhome

Please make use of our extensive digital offers on the current exhibitions on our website, as well as on our social media channels. The planned artist talk with Hito Steyerl and Mark Terkessidis will take place as a live stream on November 4, 2020 at 8:00 pm. Further information available at: <https://www.kunstsammlung.de/de/digital/>.

K21

To postpone or cancel an already booked visit to the K20 or K21, or if you have any further questions, please contact: service@kunstsammlung.de

These measures are initially valid up to and including November 30, 2020. Any changes will be announced on our website, as well as on our social media channels.

We'll be back soon – stay healthy!

#StaySafe

#StayAtHome

#K20K21fromhome